Golf Business and Management

A Global Introduction

Edited by Tim Breitbarth, Bournemouth University, UK
Sebastian Kaiser-Jovy, Heilbronn University, Germany and Geoff Dickson, Auckland University of Technology, New Zealand

Golf is big business around the world. From high profile series such as the PGA, LPGA and European tours and the re-introduction of golf to the Olympics at Rio 2016 to the network of 35,000 clubs worldwide, golf occupies an important place in the global sport community. This is the first book to introduce the fundamentals of golf business and management, covering key topics such as governance, participation, media, club management, sponsorship and retail, at elite and non-elite levels. With a section exploring the development of golf on every continent, including North America, Europe and Asia, this is vital reading for any golf-related degree course or professional accreditation programme.
